

Building Your First Resume & 1:1 Office Hours

Are you a first or second year university student getting ready to create your first resume, but aren't sure where to start? Let us help! Join the conversation with an experienced resume reviewer and former interns turned full-time Googlers as they recap their approaches to building a resume with impact.

While there's no "magic" template for the perfect resume, we'll share tips for how to:

- Format your resume for readability
- Showcase skills both directly and indirectly related to the job
- Update your resume consistently to reflect your growth

Join for Virtual Careers on Air session to learn more about building your resume. Then sign up for a 1:1 Google-led Office Hour session to get feedback on your resume.
